

A CHRISTMAS GIFT

“God so loved the world that He gave you proof of your divinity.”

Dear friends.....This Season in which Holiness is remembered and actually brought into one's daily activities—even though the activities seem to be of increased commercialism—is a remembrance of God and His eternal embrace of His Sons and Daughters, thus reminding everyone of his divinity which, like the Season, seems also to be camouflaged by things not divine. It is a time, more than any other time of the year, in which man can slip the bonds of mortality with greater ease in the transforming recognition that he is the reason God so loved the world that the Christ was born.

Indeed, underneath all the fol-de-rol of the holiday season lies this simple message of release from the impediment of your belief in your mortality which obscures your divinity—a divinity which is the reason God so loved the world that there was a first Christmas.

Don't let Christmas be about me, when it's about you! It wasn't about the Gift, but Who It was given to! The Father's Gift was made because Man was Worthy of It, and the Gift was meant to jolt Man out of his ignorance of his divinity, his Holiness! In other words: God so loved the world that he gave you proof of your divinity! Why? So you might take hold of it, claim it, let it be embodied in you as You and be redeemed!

Christmas—the advent of the introduction of the Christ into the human experience—was meant to be Man's Easter . . . and still is! Man's resurrection out of a false mortality, and His ascension into the full awareness of his stature as the Son or Daughter of God awaits whoever is willing to look at the reason for God's Gift.

“I have seen the reason, and it is me.” It is not egotism which would make that statement, but humility recognizing the lesson inherent in the Gift of Holiness made to the Holy Ones—which causes one to yield to his Holiness, reducing him to the ultimate, which is called resurrection and ascension.

Embrace the message of Christmas. Let it sink in here and now. And let yourself be renewed by your willingness to abandon the unholiness of you that seems so real, just as you let go of that which has nothing to do with the holiday season, but seems unavoidable.

What is not so has not the means to be a distraction from that which is!

Rajpur
Kingston, Washington
December 13th, 2013

-----oOo-----

TO EVERYONE WHOSE GIFTS OF SUPPORT
HAVE BEEN RECEIVED,
THANK YOU!

If you would like to participate please click here:
<http://nwffacim.wordpress.com/2013/12/13/a-christmas-gift/>