

IS IT CORRECT THAT ACIM WAS DICTATED BY HISTORICAL JESUS?

ANSWER: That is correct.

QUESTION: If the personality known as Jesus long ago....

ANSWER: Individuality.

QUESTION: If the Individuality...aha!

ANSWER: Personality is the ego sense of Self, the distorted sense of individuality.

QUESTION: That answers the question. The question was, if the personality known as Jesus had transcended the personal sense of being in the full realization of Conscious Being, what persists in calling itself "Jesus" to dictate a book?

ANSWER: Individuality is ever present, even when personality is the only thing, which is owned or, you might say, practiced. The Individuality—which is forever Itself—which was identified as Jesus, humanly speaking, remains the same Individuality that was present, which everyone else called and recognized as Jesus.

His state of enlightenment allowed him to be Totally Awakened Fourth-Dimensional Conscious Being at the very instant that everyone else saw him as a mortal like themselves—a three-dimensional creature. His task continues to this day.

Once it becomes clear to you, once you are not suffering from any distorted ego sense, you are free to discern the divine Individualities present right where little egos are parading themselves around. Since every Individuality constitutes some facet of the infinitude of one's Being, it becomes obvious that some facets of one's Being are asleep. This is not Normal or Natural, and so, it becomes one's activity to bring all aspects of his Being into conformity with Reality so that every last little bit of ignorance is eliminated, every last little bit of separatism, fear, hate is dissolved—washed clean, you could say.

Those who have ascended constitute the first stages of the Ascension of the Brotherhood of Man. Because every other Individuality who is still asleep constitutes some aspect of the infinitude of the awakened one's Being, his awakening is not complete until everyone else has awakened also. So, it becomes the work of the enlightened Ones to help the apparently bound and unenlightened ones through that shift so that every facet can simultaneously experience every other facet—or you could say the absolute undistorted integrity of the Whole. This is why the fundamental of Jesus' teaching was love.

Love is initially the recognition of the divine Individuality that has to be present in order for an ego to seem to be functioning, and then the providing of the environment in which that ego sense of individuality can assume Its full Self-conscious Awareness. That which sees the Reality substantiates the Reality.

Jesus' work did not end at the time of his ascension. And, indeed, every other Individuality who has become totally enlightened is engaged in one way or another in providing the environment in which the "sleeping ones" can most easily release their dreams and join the Whole in Its conscious experience of Its Integrity, Its Clarity, Its Absolute divinity.
