

LIGHT OF THE WHITE LIGHT: Anna Grandmother of Jeshua thru WhiteDove

April 13, 2014

Coming into Full moon, lunar eclipse and Easter

GRANDMOTHER ANNA SPEAKS:

“Beloved daughters of the Light, children of the Earth, yes, feel our presence with you of our Mother Father Creator and of the Earth herself. Come into this room with me now and open your eyes.

It is with great, great joy and delight we have this opportunity of being here together, with you and with those who are gathered with us now. From my being, it is such a blessing, such an opportunity, to be with you. Beautiful souls, your Soul Light has listened to the call of our inner being in the Divine Mother, and yes, in the Divine Father.

But for each of you here in this body mind temple we call it, in this timing now, from when each of you were present upon the Earth in bodies when we came to bring what is called the mission. Yet it was as it always is when you come into the body temple upon this beloved Earth, for there are other places to be in the cosmos. When you choose to come here at specific times, let's call it, for the time is within your experience in the body, this is where the time as you refer to it is, because you are in that place of separation from the full remembering of Source, of which you are.

And you are in a realm where there is a physical experience, where there is a reference to time which exists for you, in the place of creating separation, in the vibration of what we refer to as fear or in that sense of a separated self. So when you are in the awareness of the separated self then you have a beginning and an end, because the body is birthed and born and the body dies. For us, beloved ones, in the realms of Light, where we are not in the body form as you are, it is that truth let's say, of what it is to be in the vibration of Love, the vibration of God or the Creator, that moves and has it's being in all life in all life-forms. And so through that being in the essence of Light then like light we can move the power of thought. Now, you too are doing this everyday in where you are focusing your thought, in where you are giving your awareness and your intention, of where you are being with other beings.

So beloved ones we too when we were upon the Earth moved and had our being in the vibration of fear from that which was, hmm how we put that, was imprinted upon from that which was occurring in what would be the government, or in the laws and the beliefs of the time that we were born into. Yet also, there was a knowledge and a support for each other to bring the way of Love and Light coming through epochs of generations upon the Earth.

For you this day, know that you are here because you have desired it to be so, but also because you have heard in a way, a call from deep within your soul and all of you have shared that desire to be aware of the planet herself, but of Humanity and of what we can refer to as the greater good. In that which you are guided to do in your journey upon the Earth, all unfolds according to what is for your growth of soul, what is for your expression of light, what is for your learning, for your healing, for your unfolding, into the deeper being of your true essence as Light as Love.

We are here because there is timing, so to speak, in the returning into the centre of life's creative forces of blessing of love of grace. It is within this that one is in a way reborn again. Each of you in a way, are midwives for this energy that is within you, able to be expressed through the womb of your feminine form, that then expresses through the heart of your being, of that which is in balance, of that which is the masculine and feminine within your own essence, then it transmits through the heart. The full awakening for you meaning, the full experience is coming now into the womb sphere of your temples, for that which has been held more in the mind of the Light is descending fully into union with the Mother, with the Earth, with the Divine Feminine, which then simply emanates as the one energy of the Divine Presence within your being, of that which becomes an individuated consciousness that you are, the Christing of the form.

So as you know, in your teachings of the balance and of the cross, for example the experience of the Divine descending into the Earth, your temple, your body, the Earth itself, the experiences that you have of taking many embodiments in this realm, as our beloved brother showed in the ultimate experience of being on the cross of showing fully that there is no death, there is only the power of love that brings one home to the truth of Self within the Heart.

So there is, in coming into the physical universe and the experiences here, a descent of your light into form, a returning of your light through the vehicle and the plane of experience of feeling, of energy moving, of what you refer to in your language of emotion which brings you fully into the balance of being, and then are you able to walk gentle footsteps upon the Earth, touching all whom you touch in however the spirit within, that we can refer to as Holy Spirit, the grace of the Divine Mother-Father, is simply moving and having it's being within you, through you and around you.

So, we invite you now, our beloved Sisters of the Light, sisters in the presence of the Divine Feminine, for there is an invitation for us to come again with you, for you to remember your journeys and to take delight in the joy of being here as a woman connected within to the Father-principle within. Understanding that the Light as the Sun, let's refer to it, descends in and through you, through the system of the form to the Earth. And arises as life-force expanding in the field of your awareness, received fully in the body through the womb, received fully then up into the heart, and simply becomes receptive to the Light of Self, true Self, Divine Self.

Now beloveds, would you be willing to join with us, to receive from the Mother Earth herself with us into the womb sphere and to give to the planet Humanity, for there is - when you fully experience it - no separation of your body with the Earth herself.

So when you are feeling and referring to the healing that needs to occur, it is a truth that it is the Earth of your being that is healing, meaning transforming, transmuting into that which we refer to as the one Soul Light of the Pathway of Love, of The Way of Love that Humanity's Divine essence is.

The Christing that refers to the son of man, the descent of the Sun, the Ray of Light you are that becomes the fullness in this Earth temple in our lineage, so to speak beloveds, of which I can speak to you because each of you have soul knowledge and experience in these times of manifestation upon the Earth. In the birthing and the anchoring of love into the Earth, we will share with you, came through the Divine Feminine, the Earthing is the feminine - does not matter whether you are in a male or female body, every being births through the womb of the Mother, the Earth herself. So every light consciousness that takes form, births through the womb. As you choose to take form from the very heart of God, from the very essence of sound, where in the beginning is the vibration of sound that births, you are a ray of Light from the Mind of God, extending and thus, you come into the darkness of the womb, and you are in this vibration.

We ask you now to be with us and feel with us your essence in the womb that can be called also the void, the very sound of God. And from within that very deep place, you are given an opportunity to individuate your consciousness as Light into form and return into that Great Womb, aware of the Light and its vibration as Love. Then comes the fullness of that which is balanced as the sun and the moon to give symbols as the male and the female, as the yin and the yang, as the above and below to the centre.

Beloved ones, you birthed through a body temple, your mother, and you chose to bring your light into a very contracted experience, to explore what it is to separate from this knowing within the womb, the Great Womb, where there is Light, and many lights; simply your consciousness shifts into the womb of your mother and there is a body that begins to grow as you touch consciously. A spark is ignited in form, the seed of the mother-father and creates a temple and already as the actual form, the body with the angels of the body are grown according to the guidance of the consciousness of your essence- the Light then finds even further individuation - let's put it like that - through the soul that will hold the records of your journey into the body temple.

And so, as the angels prepare the body for you, the one guiding Angel of all of your journeys in to the Earth, knows with you what it is you will need, what it is you desire to learn, what it is you desire to make whole. And thus there is a quickening that occurs where you agree to take this journey and your consciousness in Light, together with your awareness of Soul begins to imprint into the body that is about to be birthed, and allows your mother's vibration, the thoughts of the culture you choose, the people around, all of it. Yet, your soul light, your consciousness is connected always to the source through the Divine that guides as what we refer to as Holy Spirit or the Spirit of Love. Thus you are birthed into a very tiny body, open innocent a sensory organ - the whole body - and you receive. Yet beloveds know, that what we referred to as angels are always there close, and the little one, just as the cat energy that walked in, are aware of these energies, the life the vibration of spirit that is only pure in its essence that flows through the nature forces, through the wind, through the kingdoms of the animals, the plants, the Earth.

As a little one, you know that is there, yet also you are open to the thought forms of the mind, of the separated self - of the Human, we will call it, and the vibration that contracts and pulls you in to the body to begin to believe that that's what you are, and that's all that you are. And you feel the fear that first came through the vibration of your mother's temple and then through the extended family and the culture and the Earth, and the land. We share this with you, for now beloveds, you are invited to remember who you truly are - this essence of consciousness - and to know that before you took full awareness into the body temple, here in this Earth, you were aware of where you came from - the temples of light - and that which you would learn and bring into, I use the term 'correction', all that you have experienced in coming into form, through the opportunity of being a separated self, and that which has not worked in that, hmm, let's just call it experience of choice, to separate yourself from the truth of who you are, and to fully lose yourself in the realm of fear, of thoughts, of other beings outside of your own connection, yet never have you been lost. For, in that very beginning of the agreement, there was always that calling out to Love, to bring you home. And even though you may have made the call and then turned away again, to experience, to try one more time to be the one who makes things happen - who saves another, who heals another, who listens to another, who becomes another.

Always beloveds, there has been the thread of what we call, the Angels of Grace, always there has been the thread of the Divine Mother holding her love for you, as you, in you and through you. Always there has been those of us in the Light walking with you, for you did not go out alone in that ray, you were part of a group of beings within that one ray.

Now, it is a calling as the transition occurs where it is enough, where that which you understand as, hmm, whatever you call it, the darkness, the devil, the satan, the energies of contraction that is simply the experience - the experiments of separation and the contracting energies of what we can just give an over-name to as fear. Where it has for you been enough, for humanity it is enough. Yet, always there is the opportunity for the soul to experience whatever it is to choose within the physical universes of form.

Beloved ones remember now what you know in your soul, and what you chose to be your decree before you took this body, to wake at this time, now with us. That which is of the power of the Divine within, to return home through Love for Humanity, ( repeats ) to return home through Love for Humanity. That you are in your experience yet, in the truth of your Soul Light you are only Love, Light vibrating as Love. This is the only truth, the only reality.

And thus beloved sisters, be with us, for in the feminine experience, we've held a seed deep within the womb of Life herself that births through the womb, of Love that receives to create; to enable Creation to express through the Womb of the Mother, of that which is termed for you in your understandings, as the Mother. It is an energy vibration of the deepest, deepest love that allows all that is and wants to be; that allows you to be all that you choose and wish to be and experience, whether it is into the deepest corner of darkness and fear, into which you have, yes, journeyed. Whether it is to call out for Love to embrace you again, as the Mother, the Grandmother; through the journey as a maiden, a mother, and a grandmother within you; enfolded beloveds, in the Divine embrace of the Divine Father that protects and holds the purest intelligence of Light, for you to receive and ignite, through the womb.

And thus there is a returning now. Remember how you understood the Angels of Light in the wind, in the flowers, in the Earth you walked upon. In the rock beings, the mountain beings, in all life as part of your own being, your body not separate any longer but merging with the Mother herself. We take this opportunity, our beloveds, with you, where many, many beings are gathering here now in that which you have spoken of as energy vibrations, Cosmic Forces, here with the Earth in this Solar System. We are gathered, as one Divine Intelligence expressing through many, many forms in the physical universes for that which has been, hmm, experiences of separation returning into that vibration of wholeness, anchoring through you.

You have agreed at soul level to be here now, and many, many beings incarnate in body temples are joining here with us, for many speak through our vibration. This is not in any sense of your personal persona. It is in a sense of the Divine Mother, the Earth herself as your body, your body as the Earth herself. And thus you feel her, and you feel the deep desire within you to heal that which is not in alignment now, the vibration of Love, the Light, the shimmering Light, wanting to penetrate fully now your temple and to extend and expand in a field, a vibration around your body, enlightening your minds, charging through the womb; as Love and only Love.

We sit with you in deep, deep Light and Love in deep, deep joy and gratitude for your presence here, and for your bodies upon the Earth. For it is through you, that the descent of Christ occurs. Not as a personal energy as one being that shows in an outer body to you; but as a vibration within you, that you then look upon your brothers and sisters, as an expression of that which you feel within your own womb, within your own heart, within your own mind, the One Mind of Light.

You will feel with us an urgency, for we are urgent with you - to communicate into the deep place of your Soul Light, to ask you, to allow all that is in disharmony within your bodies, to surface into your feeling, into your energy in motion, your emotional field to return to wholeness.

Beloveds, as women, you cry the tears of the Mother. As women, you immerse the body in the well - the waters of this reality, this planet. You have felt the tears welling in your bodies, wishing to express... Feel her, the Mother Earth, and her message in and through you that is calling out to humanity to stop and return to the womb - to the sound, to the vibration, to the tone of Light radiating through you as Love.

Many, many beings gather in this Solar System all interconnected into this returning, this cycle, and yes, many cycles come and go, and come and go. You are part of this returning, the opportunity for truly awakening - not through the mind - but fully through the temple of the body, the womb of feeling. As you fully experience this and embrace it, then do you transmit it to the men in your lives; for they have had their turn, so to speak, in the energies of this last 2000 years and now comes the returning, the balance. Not through simply one frequency coming up into resonance, but a frequency that brings it all into balance as One.

GM Anna Tones: (sounds of an activating tone!)

You are called to return into the womb; for this is the place you entered, in your agreement to experience - your choice even - what it is to separate into a body. Into the womb of your mother, into now the womb - the Earth herself in your returning. We ask you to bring into your daily practice an awareness in the womb of your temple, to the waters within your body, within the Earth, and the vibration that you extend through your feeling, through the intention of your mind that drops into the womb. And feel the Mother Earth as your own temple, feel the Divine Feminine.

With your permission now, we invite you to receive with us. Feel our presence as women, who have taken bodies, who have journeyed the journey as you are, who can remember when we touch close to the Earth, the vibration of fear and who know the journey of bringing into correction the healing into the truth of knowing - that which we created in separated form that imprinted upon the bodies and brought, hmm, what you refer to as trauma and pain; that was simply a dream in the essence of truth, simply thoughts of the mind made manifest for a moment and the Love of our Creator forgotten.

AN INVITATION - MEDITATION

Come to that source of the Creator within you, and remember. Receive now from the Mother Earth. Taking in a deep breath; breathing into your womb that which is the physical within you. Yet from it expand to fill the whole of your body temple. First, below the navel, the tummy centre, where you are connected to the cord of life, and feel an expansion occurring now into a sphere that rises and fills, including the third energy centre, you call your solar plexus, so that you have in that centre, and in the sacral centre, the sun and the moon vibration. And in the root, a sense of the child, yet the feminine bringing that (energy) forth into the centre over the navel again, a Child of Light. In a sphere of Light, crystalline, as we gift to each of you now, a sphere of Light from the code within the Mother Earth, seeded by us, our lineage when we were upon the Earth - with the one you call Jesus, or Jeshua, and with the Divine Feminine through the lineage of Isis, the Divine Ana energy, a sound vibration encoding the Divine Feminine through temples of light many times in to the Earth. The Divine Mary energy again, a signature for the Divine Feminine light, encoding into the Earth through that that which is called the Magdalene's, the Mary Magdalene; again, a coding of energies.

Receive now beloveds, an energy signature of the Divine Feminine of this lineage of which you are a part, in your soul light in your soul knowing. Open to your willingness, for this is a choice you are making now. To receive this crystalline sphere, ball of light, holding within it, the seed code of your stream and the code of the Divine Child. If this feels right for you, we will come in front of you now, and give to you, as a conduit with the Earth, and with the Divine Light in which we reside, the womb of Oneness to you now.

Take a deep breath as you receive. And we ask you to place your hands to the base of your womb, cupping it... as this, let's call it, ball of light, settles in. It will ignite, penetrate deeply and begin to exude a ray of light we call the deep rose pink ray. This symbol as you may remember of our Sisterhood of Light, is the Rose. And thus each one of you now receive a rose in the womb of your being, in the re-igniting and re-activation of the soul light within you. We ask you to nurture this, to be in your inner practice, to receive that which can be given to you in understandings within you. As you feel this igniting and warming know that there is a transmission that can occur when you are ready to those whom you contact when you are in the deepest place of humility and reception as a conduit for the Divine. You will feel in your temple, the vibration will simply emanate as you ask for the guidance and attune to the depth within you. This cannot be received through your mind, cannot be directed by you in the sense of your personal persona. It is a vibration, a frequency for you to experience, to become familiar with again and to allow to transmit.

Feel us again, we ask you, beside you. The circles of light around you in our temple, as we open to be of service, extending love and through the very deep humility of knowing the Divine within and a desire to simply extend this love then do we truly realize and experience Christing, the penetration of the shimmering light of the Divine Presence fully descended into form, into your form, into matter and then ascending into light; your consciousness, as the One, the Radiant One.

Beloved Daughters of the Light, Children of the Earth, Sisters in Christ, with deep, deep joy and delight we are with you this day. Know that we have served the whole; the alignment of energies from the Cosmos to the Earth, from the Earth to the Cosmos is occurring and you are part of this. The Angelic and Star Beings are close to the Earth at this time. The transmissions of rays of light from the very heart of the source, our Creator, streams in to the very core of the Earth herself radiating out to you who walk or sit upon her and who are willing to merge.

We have given you much this day that is transmitting through the matrixes of the Earth in the mass consciousness thought forms of humanity; where two or more are gathered, as our beloved brother shared, that is a truth, then the Divine may penetrate and express. This that you are receiving now beloveds, we invite you to hold very close to you, in sacredness, it is not necessary to try and express it in words to another. It is an invitation to you to come very deep within yourself to experience this vibration, to allow it to expand in your own field to be attentive to that which will come to be returned to love, that you have created in your moments or experiences of fear, that now has no need for you, that no longer serves you. Keep remembering to come deep within this vibration of love, as over this next moon cycle, into the next moon cycle that yes we gave much, much attention to when we were incarnate, and as women, delight in rituals in sacred ceremony in deep inner communion. Thus you are in a cycle over this next 28 days, into the next full moon cycle and into that next cycle. It has begun.

Stay in touch with us, for we are in touch with you, and through beloved Whitedove should you desire it so, as you know we are all Sisters in the Light, in the Love, and thus, you are not alone; and you are guided by the intuitive faculty, by the inspired thought within you, but most of all, the womb of Love.

We thank you for this opportunity and we hope to again have the opportunity with you, where you can ask your questions, but that is not needed in this moment.

This vibration with you now is very strong, know that this day you have re-attuned to the intention of your soul to the Light of the Divine Mother-Father-Creator and to the Love of the Mother Earth your temple. It is within you. And yes, your footsteps now are in service to the whole of humanity, what our brother refers to as the Attonement; the At-One-

Ment; the returning into the knowing and into the Love, the sound of the beginning.

She Tones : (sounds of heavenly tones!)

We thank you our beloveds, for this opportunity in great, great delight, as we sit with you in the energies of that which we can call the Grand Mother; the Grandmothers and the Mothers and the Maiden energies of that which is Divine Feminine penetrating. We are One, here in our presence our Brothers sit in the outer circle for all is aligned in the Oneness - nothing is separate.

Thank you. As Anna in the vibration of deep light and love, we bring our blessings to you; our blessings of joy for you and with you, for yes, we are as One.

GM Anna Tones : “Aaaaaaaaanna Aaaaaaaaannaa”
