

OBEYING THE LAWS OF GOD...IF YOU WOULD EXPERIENCE HEAVEN HERE AND NOW.

If there is a place where God's laws prevail, in other words, govern absolutely, then there are laws, aren't there. There are principles, if I may put it that way. This means that there are structures according to which you must be.

They're are not just guidelines . . . "Well, it would be helpful if you did this . . . and it would be a good thing if you did that . . ." They are absolute laws: Thou cannot have sin, disease or death . . . you cannot be an orphan successfully . . . you cannot ignore the truth and be comfortable . . . you cannot make up your own definitions and replace the Real ones with them and feel secure.

Now, put more positively: The laws of God say obedience to truth--love of truth--heals, transforms, causes the laws of the God to become visible to you as an experience, not just an intellectual theory.

You must abide by the way things work if you would experience Heaven here and now.

So, although many love the phrase from the Course that says, "You need do nothing," the fact is that what that means is, you must stop doing what doesn't work. You must stop doing what amounts to nothing. You must stop doing what causes illusion--delusion--and binds you to a suffering sense of existence.

That's what the law of God says. Those are what the laws of God say. They require something of you.
