

I WILL TELL YOU SOMETHING....THE SUBSTANCE OF ALL IDEAS IS LIVING LOVE. EVERY SINGLE FORM THAT YOU SEE IS THE EXPRESSION OF MEANING EXPRESSED BY THE FATHER.

Now, from within the three-dimensional frame of reference everything appears to be solid, occupying space, existing independently of everything else, but the fact is, that every single manifestation you see, even in the limited way that you see it, is the Infinite Self-Expression of God and is held in the Mind of God as the conscious manifestation of the Will of God. The Will of God is to Be. To be what? To be conscious! To be conscious of what? To be conscious of capital "S" Self, to be Self-Aware. And the Movement of Mind, with a capital "M", the Movement of God is experienced infinitely as Creation. But all of Creation is Idea consciously experienced.

Now this will take some thinking through, or some contemplation. But I want you to remember this one thing: Everything you are experiencing is a Conscious Experience. And if you were not conscious, you would not be experiencing it. Solidity, weight, density, form, movement, variety--all of it is Conscious Experience. You are Consciousness--not private as you think you are. But the Infinite Consciousness That God Is constitutes your Mind, because you don't have any place to get a mind of your own.

And everything you are experiencing is an Experience of Consciousness. And what is it that Consciousness experiences? Ideas! And Ideas are perfectly tangible to the Mind that creates them. And the only Mind there is, is God infinitely individualized as every Individuality there is. But nevertheless it is the One Mind of God that is Individualized. And to God, all that God is consciously aware of is absolutely tangible and experienceable, but not as a material form. It is tangible as the Idea that it is.

Every single form that you see is the Expression of Meaning expressed by the Father. And the Meaning, since God is All, must have been derived from What The Father Is as the Father expressed and experienced, or expresses and experiences those Meanings. And so, this chair is Meaning expressed. The leaves you see are Meaning expressed, arising out of the Infinite Mind That God Is, and perfectly tangible to that Mind.

And you see, as you begin to cease claiming a personal private mind called an ego, you will find yourself continuing to be conscious but more Infinitely Conscious, because the definite limits of the ego-conscious awareness will have faded and allowed your perception to be more expansive. You have heard the phrase, “On a clear day you can see forever”--infinitely.

Now, think about this. Don't analyze it too much. Just abide with the idea that everything you see is Meaning expressed, expressing an Idea held in the Mind of God by God. As you become less sure of your physical interpretation of all forms, you will find yourself beginning to discern the Meaning that the Father is expressing as the particular form you see. And in that process, any distortions that had been present when viewing it through the lens of the ego, will begin to fade and everything will become illuminated.

I will tell you something. The Substance of all Ideas is Living Love. And everything that you see at this moment is actively being Living Love. And it is the same Living Love that you are. And this Living Love is illuminated and illuminating--radiating upon everything else--so that when you are Awake, your surroundings will not be separated from you experientially. You will recognize the Love That You Are in the Love that is expressing the Meaning of the walls or the carpet, etc., or the trees, or the air--and you will feel loved, loved, loved.

But you will also know that You Are The Love that you are being loved with. And the Love will be illuminated. And the walls will be alive. Not that they will be dancing, but they will not appear to be static to you any more. They will not appear to be plaster. They will appear to be and they will be experienced as Living active Love loving.

And so the Meaning of everything will be more than anything you are imagining at the moment. And whether something is made out of gold, or whether something is made out of tin, they will both be Meaningful because they will be the Love That God Is, the Love That You Are, expressing the Meaning, the Intent, embodied in the form that you are looking at.

And so you see as Awakening occurs and your perception of everything becomes what you would call exalted, which really means a truer perception than you are presently having, everything you see will not disappear, just the illusory aspects of it. And the shift from the three-dimensional frame of reference to the fourth-dimensional Conscious Experience of Being will not constitute a removal from where you are, but an inner shift in which false perception yields to True Experience, where you find God in everything, where you see and experience the Divinity of everything.
