

A SIGNIFICANT POINT ABOUT THE CHRIST...

You see, the presence of the Christ doesn't overthrow. It undermines, by being the very presence of that which allows for the release of defenses. This is a simple but significant point. It doesn't even attempt to undermine. That is the natural result, and nobody cares that anything is being undermined because of the presence of the nourishing Love, the experience of connecting with the Presence of that which is Real. So, do not view any of this as doing "battle," or "overcoming." There is no resistance, which Love cannot dissolve, and you do not even have to know how It will do the dissolving.

~Raj/Jesus