

THE DAY OF THE LORD

“When all the children of God allow themselves to utter without a trace of resistance or self-consciousness
one simple statement,
the Atonement will be completed,
on earth as it is in heaven.

The statement is this:
“I and my Father are One.”

“Now, we begin. Here I will speak with you concerning the glory which is to be upon the earth plane. For as it has been written, so shall it be. And in those days there shall spring forth from the heavens a sound unknown to mortal ears, yet a sound instantly recognized by the soul of Man. It is the sound of the Comforter’s voice signalling the end of the world, yet not of the earth, nor of space and time. For the end of the world is not the end of Creation, but its Fulfilment. Here shall be witnessed in every heart the awakening of the One Son, dispelling the darkness of Separation. This I speak unto you: it shall come to pass in the span of your final lifetime, which even now is, upon this your beloved earth. There shall be “weeping and gnashing of teeth.” Not all desire the return of Light. Not all desire the wakening of the Son. These shall be in travail, yet held lovingly in the embrace of the Father who is as a wise parent, waiting for His child’s dream to end, but moving not to disturb it. Such is the quality of Unconditional Love. Not seen upon the earth is the Light to come. For the eyes of man will behold it from all places. The sleeping will be roused before the eyes are filled, and those busy will be stilled, for first it will be recognized in the soul. Hasten then to the countryside, for the earth will shudder as the Light dawns upon the gaze of Man. Rejoice, and be of exceeding good cheer, for the Day of the Lord shall be at hand. For the “Day of the Lord” is the awakening of the Son within the soul of all those who diligently seek the Kingdom of the Holy Father. Those who seek it not will find it not. Marc,

I give tidings of joy to you. What I speak is prophecy. Share it: For is not the task of the messenger to share his message?"

“Because miracles shorten the need for time, you as a miracle worker are very much involved with the process of ending the need for time through the extension of your Love. And that is what creates the quickening, the acceleration that so many minds and hearts are feeling these days. It’s in the air. And yes, you would look out and see so many that don’t seem to be aware of it at all. That doesn’t matter. All minds are joined, and as one mind awakens, it makes it easier for the second. And when two are awake, numbers three through six will awaken very quickly. When all of them together awaken, seven through fifty awaken much more quickly. And that is how the Son of God returns. Not in a fiery chariot from the sky, but rebirthed in an ancient remembrance in the minds of the heretofore fragmented Son of God.

And in that day and in that hour when what you might call critical mass is achieved, there will be a sound heard. It will not be a physical sound. It will be a sound heard within the consciousness, within the soul, signalling the end of the world, the end of the need for time. But just yet there will not be calamity, as some have predicted in terms of Biblical predictions about the end of the world. But rather, the things of time themselves will be translated into that which most gloriously reflects the perfections of Heaven, so that they can be mirrored back in complete consciousness into every aspect of the Holy Mind of the Son of God. And, beholding his own splendour, the Son will be remembered in its entirety as One. And you could say, if you want to paint a picture, that all minds will say together, “I and my Father are One and I put aside the things of this world – of fear, of doubt, of seriousness.” And there indeed will be a period of peace, of, call it dancing in the streets, in which you will play out one final dream: a dream still of bodies but of bodies that begin to be transfigured, filled, radiating more and more the light of the truth that the body was originally meant to conceal. And the body itself shall become a Light, and separation will be seen no more and minds will join as One beyond the reaches of space and time.

And that which has been created collapses, dissolves in a Light incomprehensible and a joy for which there are no words. Time indeed, beloved friend, will come to an end, that the things of eternity shall be remembered fully. How, then, to speak of such a moment beyond time, when the Son has returned to his rightful place? No words can touch that. No words can touch it. But I can say that the greatest of ecstasies, the greatest of pleasures that any mind could ever experience in this world – and I would place within that category my own transfiguration – pale to insignificance to that moment when all things are returned to God and there is naught but perfect union. And Light that begets Light radiates out and fills a circle that has no circumference, neither beginning nor end. Indeed, beloved friend, time will end, that eternity may be rebirthed completely. And it is you who will be present with me in that moment, and we will be together with all of our brothers and sisters, indeed – Light dissolving into Light beyond the comprehension of this world that has been dreamed into being from one thought: separation from God.

Now what do you do in the meantime? Play and celebrate what comes to pass by being the one who chooses to remember now. A little ahead of everybody else. And what happens when you choose to remember? You become a miracle worker and you shorten the need for time. Your remembrance is a remembrance that is a gift to everyone seeking to remember. So whenever you are led to feel, “What possibly could I ever do? What could I ever give anyone?” understand that you can give to this world the gift of the possibility of remembrance by being the one who remembers.”

“And in this perfect remembrance, already does the matrix unfold in effortless ways that serves the only purpose the world can have – to be the field in which the sleeping Son of God remembers who she is and arises from an ancient slumber, and uses time for but a short and final time, to dance and to celebrate and shine such Light into even the trees and the waters and the clouds of your skies, that they are transformed. There indeed will be colours never seen that shall be seen upon the Earth. In the twinkling of an eye, all waters will be purified, all weapons of destruction will fall obsolete. Rest assured, in the building of the matrix through the accepting of it within yourself, though you look out through the physical eyes and believe you see suffering, know this – a dream cannot be Real. And all that is occurring is a picture of Reality, is coming to replace the picture of separation. This outpicturing is but a reflection of what is occurring where there is no space and no time – in your own awareness – your own consciousness where we abide, where our rays of Light fuse and meld together in the great Ray, the Central Sun, the Source that is the mystery of God.”

“For the time is at hand. The Queendom descends to Earth. The second coming of Christ, is that which ripples out and awakens in the hearts and souls of enough Beings to tip the scale, so that in a flash that is timeless, all Beings are suddenly and infinitely restored in the recognition that there is only One Life being lived, and it is the Life of the restored Christ. How quickly then will all things come to reflect the perfection of Heaven, and then even the things of space and time will have served and fulfilled their purpose, and this dimension will dissolve as mist before a rising sun.”

(Jewels Message 3)

“We are the bringers of Heaven to Earth, that the things of the world might be forgotten, and the purpose of time might be completed. The translation of a brief and harmless dream is finished, and all things are quietly returned. The Sonship is remembered as One and the first, is first, eternally. The field of obstacles through which the dreamer stumbles are but various symbols of the one thing he seems to have created in error. For appearances are error and nothing more. I have often said – in many ways and through many channels – that there is but one lesson you need learn: There is nothing outside you. As with all expressions of wisdom, this statement is true at many levels. Levels appear to exist as long as the dream seems to remain. Because you are awake, the idea of levels no longer pertains to you. Therefore, the “secret” of this work is now revealed; it is given to those who are the teachers of God, for only they will truly and clearly understand it. In knowing that they do understand it, they will know they have received the “sign from Heaven” I once promised them. Now they are free to take up their cross and follow me, for where I have gone they now can come. And the whole thought structure of the world has been reversed in them. Because it is completed in them, it shall quickly be completed in the entire Sonship. This are they certain of, and our voices are raised as One.”

(‘The Way of the Servant: Living the Light of Christ’ p.79)

“What comes to pass cannot be put into words. At best they can point to, they can inspire. They can never wholly describe. Only direct experience can do that . I have said it a thousand times, and I will say it a thousand more: there will, indeed, come an age upon this earth in which Christ has been returned to every heart and every mind, an age in which the dream of Separation has been forgotten and all things are at peace, an age in which the holy Son of God has awakened from the thought at which He once failed to laugh.

Fear not the destruction of the earth. It will not occur because you are choosing to be part of the solution. Every loving thought is true and every loving thought heals. There is nothing outside you, and separation does not exist.

Therefore, when you look upon your brothers and sisters and see naught but the face of Christ, and when your thoughts about them are filled with Love, you have healed and uplifted the world. And when a million minds see nothing but the face of Christ everywhere they look, how quickly will those upon whom they look awaken and join them.”

“And the day will come when the final miracle is performed within this drama, and the drama shall cease and the whole of the Sonship will open its eyes and say, “Ha. It was all but a dream, and now I am home with my Father.” And then for a short moment there will be but the perfection of a happy dream seen upon this plane, and when it is recognised, even that dream will serve its purpose.

What then can be said of that moment? When the need for bodies, when the need for physical forms is finished? How can you use language to talk about such a thing? Poetry might work the best. And then the Sonship returns to the Father, and one sees not where the Sonship ends and the Father begins. And everywhere there is but the perfect Light of Love. It is not the erasing of awareness, but it is the transcendence of all limitation, and the dream of suffering and pain is erased forever and there is but the peace of God. Not as a reflection, but in itself and as itself.

Some of you in your dreams and in your prayers and in your meditations have been shown that vision or a reflection of it, and it has touched you so deeply that your whole life has been changed. And you have been awakened by a miracle and you have sought to awaken even more deeply, and day by day you have learned to give your life over to that intelligence and that Love that seems to be invisible, seems to be beyond you. And with each passing day a lightness comes. A joy begins to come. You smile a little bit more often. You read fewer books. You debate things an awful lot less. You become a little quieter perhaps, and you dance a little more. You feel, in a way, that you are becoming ignorant – at least in the sense of the world. Divine stupidity.

Something has touched you. A dream perhaps, sent to you by God? Yes indeed, but a part of your own mind has awakened to what it has always known, because you were there with me in the beginning before the one thought of separation was held in the Mind of Christ that seems to fragment into many parts. And from that moment I have worked without ceasing to use whatever you chose to create as the means to serve your own awakening. To bring you back, in a sense, to seeing that the Mind of Christ has never in Truth been fragmented at all. That it has been but a dream.”

“For because there is nothing outside of you, if you choose to live Heaven on Earth, and embrace that frequency and vibration like an innocent child would embrace his or her dream, know that it must come to pass that what you hold as your highest vision within yourself will come to be reflected to you by what seems to be outside of you. And the reflection you will come to see is that perfect birthing of Heaven on Earth, that reflects back to you the radical truth of who you are and have always been and will remain eternally. Must Heaven come to be on Earth for a period of thousands of years? Of course not, for time is not real. It will take only a moment’s complete reflection, in which all brothers and sisters see themselves as one another and see only the perfection of the Presence of Christ. And in that moment the skies will be purified, in that moment the waters will be purified, for the Earth always serves to mirror what is going on within the consciousness of mankind. Mankind then is the aperture through which all of creation becomes aware of itself and through the human mind - through the human mind - conflict, the illusion and the need of it, will come to be resolved as Armageddon reaches its culmination and Peace descends upon the healed mind of Christ, shared equally by all.

Come then to understand that ‘Shanti Christo’ is but one aspect of vibration of that process, whereby many minds can be called to join with you in the frequency of Heaven on Earth. And as the family grows, as more and more come to join with you and hold that “insane frequency” as the world would call it, your power will be joined and you will express a power far greater than the sum of its seemingly individual parts. And your Light will grow brighter, your vibration will become stronger and more and more will be called to join with you. That which you have chosen to participate in then, means that you have chosen to participate in the awakening of the Sonship.. You, if you are hearing these words now, you have already made the choice and there is no turning back. You have chosen to join forces to dare to dream the undreamable dream, to go beyond limitation and enter into the grandest experiment ever brought forth within the mind of the holy Son of God, who alone had the power to dare to dream the dream of separation and who therefore alone has the power, the tenacity, the wisdom and the compassion to dream the dream of Heaven on Earth.

I have shared with you that the Ascension is already completed. That's no big deal, that was done for you in the moment you created time and the illusion of separation, it is called the Gift of Grace, for you cannot ascend under your own power. That Ascension having already been completed, then waits for the process of the Son's incarnating fully into the dream of materiality, into the very dream of separation and space and time. And you are that one, you are that consciousness, you are that radiance, you are that Light choosing to bring the things of Heaven to Earth, or the things of Reality to illusion, the things of Reality to dreams. That is what the body is about, no longer a prison for you but an opportunity to dare to be the presence of Christ, teaching only Love, extending only Forgiveness, abiding in perfect Patience - which means to make power slowly. To see that you are the one who has been willing to take on the "sins of the world" - which means you are the one that has been willing to taste of everything unlike Christ, to experience everything unlike Heaven on Earth - all for the experience of transforming it and thereby knowing that you are the one of unlimited power that nothing can hold a candle to. That is why you have created all of your challenges, that is why you have created all of your dreams of lack, and of suffering, and of birth and death, and loss, so that you can have the experience of realising that there's a power in you that far transcends anything that the dream of separation could dish out. You are like a scriptwriter, a movie producer and you've about run the gamut of creating war movies, dramas, and now you are setting about the creation of the final dream, the final enactment that can occur in time - the coming of the Messiah into the field of time. The Messiah is not one individual but the collective of the Christ Mind enacted, re-cognized and expressed through the choice for Holy Relationship. That is the only choice that matters and anything else is the choice to inhere in a worn-out pattern of illusions, and in illusions there can only be pain and suffering and aloneness and death. But in holiness there is true intimacy, and in true intimacy there is transcendence of space and time and bodies. And in the transcendence of time is the return of peace, and in the return of peace it is as if the dream never was.

Understand well then, that I call you forth to join with me, and that which can be called the frequency or vibration of 'Shanti Christo' - the peace of Christ - is that vibration or frequency that must come to all minds, in all dimensions, in all worlds, like a note struck from a crystal glass that resonates throughout the whole of creation, the very sound of it soothes all ripples upon the oceans of creation and restores all things to the perfect holiness found only in the union of Father and Son, Creator and created, God and Christ. (Hmm) And you thought you were just going to have a bit of fun and see how all of this works out? And yet I say unto you that is exactly the attitude to carry. Those of you that are choosing to join forth as this family in this grand experiment, hold the attitude of playfulness, use your very relationship to the idea of 'Shanti Christo' as an opportunity to discover where you might still be lingering in the shadows of limitation. Come to see that you, you the listener to these very words, are the one who has the power to manifest 'Shanti Christo'. Don't wait on anybody else, you are that one and by choosing to live as if unlimitedness and Heaven on Earth were already present, you will discover that you are the one who is the maker of all worlds. You are the redeemer of all worlds. You are the one bold enough to have dreamed the dream of separation and you now, in the only moment that can ever exist which is now, have the power to manifest the peace of Christ upon this Earth.

.....And each and every one of you has a part to play, each part is equal to all others - no matter how seemingly small or unseen by the eyes of the world. Each gesture of commitment empowers the whole to be spread upon the face of this Earth. For you see the thought of vibrational frequency of 'Shanti Christo' is a representation of that frequency that will spread like a ripple throughout all minds and establish the Reality of Heaven on Earth. And when all minds have beheld that Truth, which will come indeed in a "twinkling of an eye", the purpose of time will be completed, the desire to dream will be ended and you will return with your creations to the abode of a perfect Peace that passes all understanding. The Son will return to Home in the infinite Mind of God. There will not then be space and time any longer. There will not be the comings and goings of the seasons. There will not be birth and death. There will be no sense of separation whatsoever. And if you would well receive it, that Reality is the only true creation that has ever existed. And the whole enactment of bringing Heaven to Earth is nothing more than the completion of a thought, in which the Holy Son of God awakens to realize there has been no suffering, no journeys have been undertaken and nothing has ever changed.

Would you be the one willing to live that Reality while you seem to exist in your brothers and sisters dream of separation? Just as I have entered your prayers and your meditations and your dreams, understand that if you walk this Earth with the decision to be awakened, you are literally doing the very same thing of manifesting a form through which you can enter into the dreams of others and reflect to them the Truth of themselves yet buried within them. And that is what it means to be the Messiah, the Word made flesh, to enter the dream of those who believe in separation and to reflect to them Reality. It would rather change how you experience your day! In your prayer and your meditation, see that world as having arisen, see it as your only Reality and acknowledge the Truth that that is why you have come to this dimension of the dream. It's the only reason and it's time to own it and to live it. You are 'Shanti Christo'. You are that one, born in that vibration, sustained in that vibration, and the one who has chosen to enter a world of dreams to extend that vibration as far as from the East to the West - and that means everywhere. And because you are that, let your extension of Peace be done with celebration, let it be done with Joy, let it be done with the Reality that this illusory world is powerless over you. For when perfect fearlessness is again established within your mind, all fragmentation has been healed, and the re-birth of Christ has been completed in you."

('Friends of Shanti Christo' – Tape)

“For your true family is all those who hear the vibration of Truth and elect to turn again toward it, all others are merely aspects of yourself waiting - yet a little while - to do the same. Grant them their permission to do so and wait on no one. Love you therefore one another, join with each other in whatever ways that you can.

Celebrate the Light and the Truth, rejoice, for indeed that Light comes to shine and all things of separation shall be passed away. Dance O holy Child of God, for if you dance not, surely you must not know what comes to pass. Rejoice and be of exceedingly great cheer, for the Day of the Lord now is. (Hmm) And you thought that perhaps still you could have just an ordinary day! (Chuckle) Be you therefore at peace beloved friends.”

“It is a great truth
that greater works than mine
shall you who serve Love
bring forth into the world in these Last Days.”

(Preface xx ‘The Way of the Servant)
