

GOD ANSWERS WHEN....

When you or anyone arrives at a point where you willingly and completely abandon your own self-righteousness, your own private personal capacity to accomplish great things on your own, and you are in a state of humility which, to you, you define as failure—which is insulting, which is awful—when you arrive at that point with no more faith in yourself and your righteousness, and you sincerely ask for help, you get help! Not because of your competence, but because of what you Are—the Son or Daughter of God, whom God answers when God is approached genuinely. It's that simple.
