

YOU ARE THE CHRIST....

Now I hope that you're beginning to grasp the fact that you are the Christ, that there's only Mind. You don't have two minds--a Real Mind and an ego mind. There's just Mind creating, according to the Laws of the Singularity of Mind, an experience of Reality as it is because you're yielding to the Father's Will, or an illusion of a conflicted world and universe that started from a big bang that is purely material and has nothing to do with God. You are either allowing the fullness and beauty of God's Creation to register with you because you're letting it in, or you are with excellence creating illusions that you can't escape from until you arrive at a point of disregarding them. Because the only way a fantasy or an illusion can disappear and cease afflicting you is when you disregard it.

~Raj/Jesus